

'MAF aircraft fly all sorts of things
To help people out,' Mike said.
'This Advent, let's build a list of them
All the way from A to Z.'

T is for translators, who work on the Bible,
A job which often can go unsung.
Their work means people can read God's Word
In their very own language or and tongue.

Next stop on their Advent adventure,
The friends flew to Kalimantan.
On the Indonesian island of Borneo,
They were determined to lend a hand.

Standing below by the airstrip,
Three ladies were waving a greeting.
'Please would you fly us in your plane

To a very important meeting?'

'We're helping to translate the Bible
From English into Punan,
So people can read the Good News
In the language of Kalimantan.'

The ladies thanked Mike, and Foxtrot too,
'You're playing an important part
In enabling people to read God's Word
In the language of their heart.'

Bible translators are just some of the passengers
That MAF flies through the skies.
Join us tomorrow for the next letter,
And another exciting surprise.
